

The logo features a blue outline of Berkeley County, West Virginia, with a yellow banner across the top that reads "BERKELEY COUNTY". In the center, the number "250" is prominently displayed in white with a blue outline, and a smaller "th" is to its right. Below the number, the years "1772-2022" are written in white. At the bottom, another yellow banner reads "WEST VIRGINIA".

Berkeley County
250th Commemoration Steering Committee

Acknowledgements

We are pleased to present the Berkeley County 250th Commemoration history exhibition “Discover Berkeley,” featuring contributions by the Berkeley County Historical Society, General Adam Stephen Memorial Association and Triple Brick Museum, Historic Morgan Cabin Association, Berkeley County Clerk’s Office, Berkeley County Historic Landmarks Commission, Sumner-Ramer Memorial Archives & Museum, Martinsburg-Berkeley County Convention and Visitors Bureau, and Martinsburg-Berkeley County Public Libraries.

This year-long exhibition in celebration of the county’s 250th birthday is a project of the Berkeley County 250th Commemoration Steering Committee.

We would like to thank Keith Hammersla, Museum Curator of the Adam Stephen House and Triple Brick Museum; Berkeley County Clerk Elaine Mauck, Carol Appenzellar, Curator of the Berkeley County Historical Society, Todd Funkhouser, president of the Berkeley County Historical Society board of directors; Martin Keesecker, president of the General Adam Stephen Memorial Association and president of the General Adam Stephen Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution; West Virginia Department of Arts, Culture & History Curator Randall Reid-Smith, and the staff of the Martinsburg Public Library for their generous support.

The Berkeley County Council and West Virginia Governor Jim Justice provided funds for the implementation of this exhibition.

Thank You!